Also another shamfull abuse is that hath ben vsed of longe tyme if a fryer had preched at Poules crosse or i any other place of this realme of Englande / whan he shulde make his prayer / he wold fyrst praye for the pope of Rome and for all his college of cardynalles / Archbyshops & byshops / and in especyall for the byshop of the dyoces / and for all the clergye / and also in especyall for his relygyon / fyrst for his prouyncyall and prior / and for all their benefactours & foryderes. And than whā he had prayed after this maner / than wolde he praye for the kynge & quene with their noble counsell. Was nat this a shamfull abuse that a sorte of beggery fryers shulde be set afore a noble prince within his owne realme.

Our thankes be gyuen vnto the eternall god / that abuse is well reformed / for now is our prince Henry the eyght supreme heed of this his churche of England / as he is worthy / and so I truste he shall contynewe forever / & they that dyd exalt thé selues be made lowe. I meane the bysshoppe of Rome and suche as saudur him / for nowe he is set nexte the great Turke or Sodan and scantely worthy of their company / God make him better.

Also agayne / the people dyd
4. Re. idolatry as it appereth in the .18 18. chappter of the kynges / for the whiche cause the kyng Ezechias cõmaunded to put away al suche thynges / in so moch that the peple dyd honour the brasen serpẽt that Moses had made the which was was contrary to the lawe of god for whiche cause it was broken all to peces. Loke the.xxii.cha. of the thyrde boke of Moyses / howe that Balac wold haue had Balaam to curse the chyldren of Israell: but God wolde nat so for whā Balaam stroke his Asse the lorde opened the mouth of the Asse / and she sayde to Balaam / what haue I done to ỹ that thou smytest me. By this you maye know that if we wold holde our peace / the stones & the dome best wolde speke / and where as balac the hoze of Babylon wolde haue vs cursed / god doth blesse vs.

Now let vs reioyse & be glad for the eternall god hathe rayled to vs a Iosyas / a louyng kynge a kynge that hathe the worde of god in great reuerence / ye / & also the hym do reioyse with geuynge of thankes to god / that it hath ple-sed hym to sende vs suche a Josyas that hath put away all idolatry / all falshed inuented by the great hore of Babylon / & to this Josias hath god raised vp good prestes and good ministers / that in no wyse wyll hyde the trewe worde of god from him nor from his people / laude be to god now and euer without ende.

Para. 2 And also Asa dyd that which was good in ỹ syght of the lorde his god and put away all straun ge alters. Also he put awaye all ymages and his kyngdome had rest before him.

Rede scrypture whose wyll & in all places you shall fynde that for idolatry / the kyngdome and people

peple hath had moch grer punish ment. But I trust we shall haue a ꝓsperous relme/ for our ꝓnce wyl in no wyse suffre no such ido latry nor witchcraft/ as hath ben vsed in the tyme of the bisshop of Babylon w' his ministers therof hath come moch harme/ but now the kynge of this relme / I mene our Iosyas hath cõmaunded to put awaye all suche & to honour the lyuyng god with fere & drede

The remembraũce of our Io-syas is lyke as whã the potecary maketh many precyouse swete smellyng thynges togyther / his remembrounce shalbe swete as hony in all mouthes / and as the playeng of musycke by the wyne he was appoynted to tourne the people agayne & to take away al abominacios of the vngodly. He directed

immediatly vnder god of the church of englande. Wher fore the kynges grace callyng to his remembraunce the power charge & commission gyuē to him of almighty god & vpon a vehemēt loue & affection towardes his lo uyng & faythful subiectes & that they shuld nat perish or faynt for lacke of spūall fode hath straytly charged & cōmaunded al his said bisshops & other of his clergy to declare, teach & preche vnto the pe ple euery sonday & other high fe stes throughe the yere the trewe mere & sincere word of god with out any fayning. wherfore let vs pray to god to prosper our noble kyng & prince henry the vyght su preme hed of ȳ church of englād w^t his most lawfull wyfe quene Jane & all hys noble counsell

Amen.